Please take the time to read our risk waiver, general risk warnings and statements. It's important to us and to you.

Risk Waiver - We have read the general risk warning and the general risk warning and statements below. We are aware that orienteering is a recreational activity that can be dangerous, accept that there is a degree of risk and acknowledge that we participate in at our own risk. We are aware of, and will comply with Orienteering NSW's Competitors' Rules.

We release Orienteering NSW, its affiliated clubs, members and all other parties from any responsibility or legal liability associated with our presence at, and participation in, an orienteering event.

To the extent that the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 applies this release is limited to responsibility and legal liability for death or personal injury and does not apply to significant personal injury caused by reckless conduct by Orienteering NSW, its affiliated clubs, members and all other parties.

General Risk Warning - Competing in an orienteering event is subject to risks. These include death, serious injury or illness due to:

- rough terrain and obstacles;
 - overexertion;
 - heat, cold or other adverse weather conditions;
 - plant and animal life; and
 - accidents with vehicles, other competitors or pedestrians.
- There are also risks:
- that access to medical, evacuation or search services might be slow; and
 - of damage to, or loss of, your personal property.

Statements

1. We are aware there is no health, accident, ambulance, disability or life insurance provided.
2. We allow the free use of our names and photo in entry information, results, news, marketing and promotional material pertaining to the event or orienteering. This does not extend to publishing a photo of a person under 18 with their name.
3. We will ensure that any children under our control at the event are appropriately supervised at all times. We acknowledge that parents and guardians are responsible for deciding whether their children are capable of orienteering by themselves at each event.

For your information, the Association's privacy policy is as follows: The Association is collecting information on this form for the purpose of, amongst other things, its membership records and to enable newsletters to be sent to you. From time to time, the Association or an affiliated club or their representatives and volunteers, may take photographs or video of individuals at orienteering events for the purposes of publishing such information on the Association's or the club's website, or for use in promotional material. The Association or an affiliated club may also publish competition results on their websites and in various media publications including newspapers. The Association will maintain all information in a secure manner and will not pass it on for purposes outside the above. By entering orienteering events, you consent to your personal information being collected and used in the ways outlined above. Should you wish to gain access to any of your personal information held by the Association you should contact the Association's Administration Officer.
