MTBO State Shield: NSW

NSW has won the State Shield at the Australian championships for the first time. Points are earned by the first three riders in each class for each event. The Shield had been won by Victoria in 13 of the 14 years since inauguration in 1998. Congratulations to all the NSW riders who helped us win this trophy for the first time.

DuO Series 2011-12

Thanks to the amazing efforts by Greg Bacon of Newcastle Orienteers, DuO is now into its second summer. DuO is a mix of MTBO and Foot O and last weekend's opening event at Awaba attracted more than 100 entries. It's great to see 5 clubs represented among our winners.

NSW Orienteer of the Year badges for 2012

Due to the unfortunate washout – twice – of Big Foot’s planned anniversary weekend at Snow Hills, there were only 11 State League events held this year. Subsequently, a person’s best 5 scores counted towards the badges. 500 points is the highest aggregate possible.

Wombies 2012

The Wombies celebrate the lighter moments of 2012.

2012 WOMBIES

1. Melissa Annetts

1. HERMOINE GRAINGER AND THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE. At the recent outrageously successful Spooks in the Park event, one of our junior Spooks put on a startling portrayal of a sorceress. Who else could imbue a fortune like 'If you were a potato, you would be a good potato' or 'In the cookies of life, friends are the chocolate chips'.

2. Paul Prudhoe

2. AIM HIGH, BUT DON'T GET TOO FAR AHEAD OF YOURSELF. This week has been possibly the most frantic in the history of ONSW. Your board and officers have been trying to finalise everything for tonight, the presidents' forum earlier today, the Greater Western Sydney Giants AFL team having a go at orienteering this morning, and a whirlwind of publicity for our two free weekends in northern NSW starting on Friday. So frantic in fact that one invitation to the Ballina Triathlon Club (initially sent to the wrong email address) was signed off "Paul Prudhoe, president, Orienteering Australia". PAUL PRUDHOE come on down, or should I say "come on up"?

3& 4 Nick Dent

3. BLUE WITH HUNGER. A man whose thirst for orienteering knows no bounds, on the special dietary requirements for tonight he wrote 'Hungry'. NICK DENT. Don't eat it all at once!

4. Don't go away just yet Nick. Juniors - Did you know that, secretly, in addition to being the NSW Head Coach, Nick Dent is also Aang - Avatar the Last Airbender! (see screen) At the Australian Schools Champs the NSW Schools Team was delighted to be let in on Nick's secret and see what a great sport he is.
