ORIENTEERING NSW

Does a 3 hour summer sail exploring Sydney harbour sound inviting?

Well event sponsor Sydney By Sail has just the experience for you.

On Monday 29 December, join other orienteers for a sail prior to your orienteering run. The sail is scheduled for 10am to 1pm from Darling Harbour. You can then nip into one of the many cafes, restaurants or pubs at Darling Harbour for some lunch prior to making the short stroll to orienteering at Pyrmont.

- What's Included? A 3 hour Sydney Harbour sailing experience.
(If we have multiple yachts, we may even have some fun match racing.)
- When? Monday 29 December 2014, 10am to 1pm – please ensure that you arrive early ready for the 10am departure.
- Host? Sydney By Sail which is an award winning sailing business owned and operated by Olympic yachtsman Matt Hayes.
- Departure point? National Maritime Museum, Darling Harbour.
- Yacht? You will be on board a luxury Hunter yacht with a friendly skipper. There is a maximum of 14 per yacht.
- What do I do? Be part of the crew or sit back and relax.

Sydney Icons? Sail under the Sydney Harbour Bridge plus past the Sydney Opera House and Fort Denison.

Who can participate? All ages

Cost? $132 per person. Under 14s are $66 per person.

Please note that these are discounted rates available for this sail only as part of the Christmas 5 Days carnival.

Bookings? Book and pay via Eventor.
